I am a literature enthusiast who channels my passion for storytelling through clubs and personal creative projects. Competitive by nature and well-disciplined in everything I pursue, I compete at the varsity level in both squash and debate. Beyond academics and athletics, I am deeply committed to my community and the values I hold, which I act on through my involvement with JAC and Grassroots. Looking ahead, I am driven by a clear ambition to build a career in the entertainment industry.

I am currently a student at The Browning School, where I maintain a 3.94 GPA and have earned High Honors recognition. My experience includes a summer internship, a competitive summer program, and volunteer work with Grassroots. Outside the classroom, I stay active across a range of pursuits: I compete on the Varsity Squash team, which placed first in its league; I founded the school's Literature Club; I serve as a board member of JAC; and I am an active member of the Debate Team.

On the technical side, I am proficient in Adobe Premiere Pro and Final Draft Pro, with hands-on experience in both photography and videography. Academically, my strengths lie in research and writing, argumentation and debate, literary analysis, and public speaking. On a personal level, I bring leadership, networking, active listening, and community organizing skills to everything I do.
